GUILD MEETING PROGRAM

This month's meeting program is free-form!
 Since we're electing officers at this meeting, our program will be show and tell. Think about sharing your favorite quilting trick or technique. Did you get special ruler or tool for Christmas, maybe a new quilting book? We'd love to hear your review - tell us what you think, pros and cons. Learning from each other is what it's all about!

Next Guild Meeting:

Tuesday, January 19 - 7-9 p.m.

Where: Pointe of Light Lutheran Church (formerly Harbour Pointe)
 5425 Harbour Pointe Blvd, Mukilteo

Program: Show-N-Tell

Next Board Meeting:

Monday, January 25 - 6:30 p.m.
 (Site to be determined)

All Members Welcome!

SEW-IN

When: Friday, January 22
 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Where: Mukilteo Library

Join us for a day of sewing and fun. Work on your UFOs you didn't finish before the holidays or start yet another project! There will be a couple of irons and ironing boards. In addition to your quilting supplies, if you have an extra extension cord, that would be helpful. Lunch is free-form: Bring a sack lunch; QFC is a few blocks away and there are a few sandwich shops nearby. Snacks are always fun to share too.

Local Quilt Shop Closing

Many of you may have already heard about this: Calico Cat and Bernina Too, of Auburn, is closing its doors. Everything is going, even the fixtures. They will be open until the end of January or until everything's gone.

Auburn is a bit of a drive from Mukilteo, but if you're in the area, it might be worth a stop to see if something suits your fancy.

Mary has a nice letter on her website with the reasons she's retiring and closing the store. Although it's sad to hear that we're losing a local quilt shop, sometimes moving on to the next adventure of life is what's exciting.
